

‘NON MEMBER’ PRODUCERS.

How to get your compensations for private copying

Are you a producer not belonging to any Italian collecting society?

‘Non-member’ producers are producers of sound recordings that have not joined any Italian collecting management organisation (CMO) to manage their compensations for neighbouring rights.

If you are a ‘non-member’ producer now, with ITSRIGHT, you can get your remuneration for private copying, even without a representation agreement.

Are you entitled to receive private copying remuneration?

ITSRIGHT can collect and then distribute to you your compensations if:

- a) You hold the right to receive a compensation for private copying with regards to the phonograms and phonographic supports concerning your request;
- b) you marketed in Italy phonographic supports (e.g. CDs, LPs, etc.) or distributed phonograms through digital platforms;

c) you paid mechanical rights to any music publishers’ collecting society, or you got a music publisher’s license for distributing your sound recordings through digital platforms;

d) you do not result, at the time of your application, definitely convicted for one of the crimes under Articles 171 and following of the Italian Legislation on copyright, nor gone bankrupt or applied to bankruptcy;

e) if you are a foreign collective management organisation (CMO), or an agent representing producers, the requirements b) and c) refer only to the producers you administer, while the requirement

f) must be fulfilled both by you and the other party. This is also needed if you are a heir/successor of a producer or another legal subject (individual or collective, e.g. foundation or association) entitled to administer private copying.
